Saint Valentine's Day

Saint Valentine's Day is celebrated on February 14 each year. It is celebrated in many countries around the world. Saint Valentine's Day is an official feast day in protestant countries. The Eastern Orthodox Church does not celebrate Saint Valentine's Day.

St. Valentine's Day is named after an early Christian saint called Valentinus. The legend says that Saint Valentine was imprisoned for performing weddings for soldiers and for help to Christians, who were persecuted under the Roman Empire. During his imprisonment he healed the daughter of his jailer Asterius. Legend states that before his execution he wrote "from your Valentine" as a farewell to her.

In the 15th century it became a feast of romantic love when lovers present flowers and send greeting cards (known as "valentines") to each other. Since the 19th century handwritten valentines have given way to mass-produced greeting cards. The symbols of Saint Valentine's Day include hearts, doves, red roses, teddy bears, cupids.

Teacher: Now we are going to discuss some examples of true love from life and from literature. First we are reading the love story of the British king Edward VIII. Your task is to read the text and be ready to correct the false sentences.

Edward VIII (the text from the slide)

Edward VIII was King of the United Kingdom from 20 January to 11 December 1936. His reign lasted only 326 days. Edward became king when his father died in 1936. He proposed marriage to the American socialite Wallis Simpson, who had divorced her first husband and was going to divorce her second.

The Church of England opposed the marriage, saying that the people would never accept a divorced woman as queen. Choosing not to end his relationship with Simpson, Edward abdicated. His younger brother Albert became King of the United kingdom.

Teacher: If you were attentive you'll be able to correct the sentences:

- 1) Edward VIII was King of the United Kingdom for 3 years.
- 2) His passion Wallis Simpson was a girl from a poor family.
- 3) The Church of England approved his choice.
- 4) Edward decided to remain a king.
- 5) There was no king in the United Kingdom after his abdication.

7. Аудіювання (слайд 9 – див. додаток)

Ціль: удосконалення навичок розуміння звукового потоку з опорою на знання, отримані на уроці літератури.

Teacher: The love story of Romeo and Juliette by W. Shakespeare can serve a good example of true love from literature. To make sure of it listen to the dialogue of Romeo and Juliette from the well-known Shakespeare's play. (two pupils role-play the dialogue).

Juliette: Who told you how to get here below my bedroom?

Romeo: Love showed me the way – the same thing that made me look for you in the first place.

Love told me what to do, and I let love borrow my eyes.

I'm not a sailor, but if you were across the farthest sea,
I would risk everything to gain you.

Juliette: You can't see my face because it's dark out.

Otherwise, you'd see me blushing
about the things you've heard me say tonight.

Do you love me? I know you'll say "yes" and I'll believe you.

But if you think it's too easy and quick to win my heart?

Romeo: Lady, I swear by the sacred moon above,

The moon that paints the tops of fruit trees with silver...

Juliette: Don't swear by the moon. The moon is always changing.

Every month its position in the sky shifts. I don't want you
To turn out to be that inconsistent too.

Romeo: What should I swear by?

Juliette: Don't swear at all. But if you have to swear,

Swear by yourself and then I'll believe you.

Romeo: Oh, blessed, blessed night! I'm afraid all this is just a dream,

Too sweet to be real.

8. Songs about love (слайд 10 – див. додаток)

а) Мовлення.

Pupil 1: The Beatles is the British rock-band from Liverpool. It was founded in 1960. The members of the group are John Lennon, Paul McCartney, Ringo Starr, George Harrison. They managed to create their own style and sound. They influenced the rock-music of the 20-th century greatly and caused the global phenomenon “beatlomania”. The Beatles were called “fab four”. It was one of the most successful groups. In 1970 the band broke out. In 1980 John Lennon was killed. In 2001 George Harrison died. McCartney and Starr compose music.

Pupil 2: The song Yesterday was recorded by The Beatles in 1965. It was written by Paul McCartney. It should be mentioned that he didn't have musical education. This song remains very popular today. First it was released in the USA and topped the American chart. Yesterday was voted the best song of the 20-th century. In this century it was performed 7 million times. First McCartney composed the melody, he affirmed that he had heard it in his dream. A long period of time passed before he wrote lyrics and found the right title for the song.

Pupil 3: The Beatles was a rock-band and the song Yesterday didn't correspond to their image. Their songs were positive and optimistic and the sad song Yesterday was not typical for them. That's why the song was not included into the album and was released as a single. The musicians used the following instruments: acoustic guitar, cello, violin, viola. Yesterday ranked first in the hit parades of many countries: the USA, Canada, New Zealand, Finland, Norway, Denmark, Spain and others. Yesterday
Desmond Rossler

John Lennon,
Paul McCartney

Yesterday, all my troubles seemed so far away,
Now it looks as though they're here to stay.
Oh, I believe in yesterday.

Suddenly, I'm not half the man I used to be,
There's a shadow hanging over me,
Oh, yesterday came suddenly.

Why she had to go, I don't know, she wouldn't say,
I said something wrong,
Now I long for yesterday.

Yesterday, love was such an easy game to play,
Now I need a place to hide away,
Oh, I believe in yesterday.
